Dear Ms. Cruickshank:

Thank you for forwarding to me (in your July 16th email) the list of arbiters that were requested by the Complainant. Apparently, this list was not originally sent to my official address for correspondence listed on my Response. On June 13th, I sent a request that asked that all correspondences not sent to my official address for correspondence (e.g. andy@afm.com) during the period of May 25 to June 13 be forwarded to that address specified on my Response (andy@hasse.com). This has not yet occurred. Could you, at your convenience, forward those correspondences?

Secondly, I would like to refer to the Rules for the UDRP section 6(3) where it is written:

The third Panelist shall be appointed by the Provider from a list of five candidates submitted by the Provider to the Parties, the Provider's selection from among the five being made in a manner that reasonably balances the preferences of both Parties, as they may specify to the Provider within five (5) calendar days of the Provider's submission of the five-candidate list to the Parties.

Did this action ever take place?

Thank you in advance for your responses to the above.

Sincerely,

Andy Hasse
